

Sociology Pros6

Mastery in Year 13

- Explain quantitative and qualitative methods of research in research design.
- Explain the distinction between positivism, interpretivism, different types of data and research methods and the usefulness of these in sociology including use of scientific methodology.
- Evaluate the theoretical, practical and ethical considerations. Evaluate sociological perspectives of consensus, conflict, structural and social action theories and the impact of modernity and post-modernity.
- Analyse the relationship between theory and methods.
- Explain sociological perspectives of crime and deviance, social order and social control.
- Analyse the relationship between Sociology and social policy and evaluate different perspectives of this. Explain sociological perspective of crime, deviance, social order and social control.
- Analyse the social distribution of crime and deviance.
- Explain the impact of globalisation, the media green crime; human rights and state crimes.
- Evaluate different perspectives of crime control, and the criminal justice system. Apply sociological theories, concepts, evidence and research methods to a range of issues.

Mastery in Year 12

- Explain sociological perspectives of the relationship of the family to the social structure and social change.
- Explain the changing patterns of family life including gender roles, domestic labour, childhood and power within the family and analyse sociological perspectives of this.
- Explain the impact of demographic trends on family life.
- Examine the role of the media including new media. Analyse the relationship between ownership and control of the media. Evaluate the impact of globalisation and explain processes of selection and presentation of news. Analyse the relationships between media and audiences examining representations of different groups.
- Analyse the role and functions of the education system and differential educational achievement of social groups including relationships and processes within schools. Evaluate the significance of educational policies, and the impact of globalisation on education.

SOCIAL DISTRIBUTION OF CRIME AND DEVIANCE

What are patterns of offending and why do they exist?

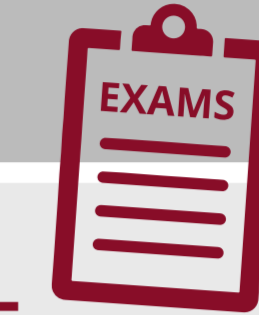

GLOBALISATION AND CRIME

How has globalisation affected crime and deviance?

REVISION AND COMMENCEMENT OF EXTERNAL EXAMS

TRANSITION

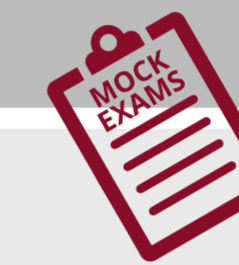

CRIME, DEVIANCE, SOCIAL ORDER AND SOCIAL CONTROL

Why do people commit crime and how can crime be reduced?

METHODS OF RESEARCH

How useful are different methods to study contemporary society?

MOCK EXAMS AND REVISION

What do I need to do to improve my grade?

DIFFERENTIAL EDUCATION ACHIEVEMENT

Why do patterns of achievement exist?

THE ROLE AND FUNCTIONS OF THE EDUCATION SYSTEM

What is the function of education?

THE ROLE OF THE MEDIA IN CONTEMPORARY SOCIETY

What impact does the media have?

FAMILIES AND HOUSEHOLDS SOCIAL STRUCTURE AND SOCIAL CHANGE

How and why has family changed?

